DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species A: represented by claims 1-6; drawn to an optoelectronic module wherein each of the first and second openings further define a first and second channel, the first and second channels each being constructed and positioned to slideably receive therein a ferrule formed on the received optoelectronic packages.

Species B: represented by claims 5-7; drawn to an optoelectronic module wherein a guide mounted adjacent to each of the first and second openings and defining an upper and a lower channel the upper and lower channels each being constructed and positioned to slideably receive therein a ferrule formed on the received optoelectronic packages.

Species C: represented by claims 8-10; drawn to an optoelectronic module comprising an optoelectronic transmitter and receiver packages, each including an elongated housing to be nestingly engaged in one for the first and second opening and having a ferrule formed along one of the an upper and a lower side of the ferrule being designed to be slideably engaged in one of the upper and lower channels of one of the first and second openings.

The species are independent or distinct because they are mutually distinct.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, there is no generic claim.

Art Unit: 2883

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
